The RESILIENCE BREAKTHROUGH

“

What makes the difference for those who overcome their circumstances and those who don't? Answering this question became my life's work, and I believe I've done it: The answer is resilience, the ability to use adversity as fuel. ”

-Christian Moore, LCSW

Who do you know that needs a breakthrough?

Resilience is for everyone -- the successful businessperson, the stay-at-home parent, the struggling teenager, the inmate -- essentially, anyone who's breathing oxygen on planet Earth.

I wrote this book for everyone, but I especially want it to reach the people who are hurting most -- the ones who don't know yet how their challenges can be their best friend. I hope you can help me.

I invite you to not only read this book for yourself, but to consider the people in your life who could really use its words. Think about what the world would be like if we all had the skills to bounce back from any adversity!
