47TH ANNUAL SCCA CONFERENCE

South Carolina Counselors: Agents of Change

February 3-5, 2011

Myrtle Beach Marriott Resort at Grande Dunes

Do Not Miss the Exciting Presentations at This Year's Conference!

Presented by
Dancing Moose Productions

Preconference Workshop, Thursday, February 3, 9 am - noon

Ethics, A Musical Comedy

Keynote Luncheon Session, Friday, February 4, noon - 1 pm

Ethics Are Fun!

"Come and be entertained while you learn in the latest production of Ethics: A Musical Comedy. I saw Tim, Meredith, and Gordon conduct this session last March and I thought about it for weeks! The three-hour show conveys the depth and seriousness of the professional counseling ethical codes. At the same time, it is highly absorbing and hysterically funny! This is one program you will not want to miss!"

Mary Jane Anderson-Wiley, Ph.D., SCCA President

What started out as a simple idea to make ethics more fun and entertaining has turned into a presentation that attendees describe as "Awesome," "Outstanding," "Best ethics presentation yet," and "I smell a Tony." Although the group has no plans to take the presentation off Broadway, they know that you will be entertained as you obtain your CEs as well as qualify for all specialty areas including LPC, LPCS, NBCC, School Counselor, and Career Specialist/GCFs.

The group has moved from a meager beginning in 2005 to a record breaking year in 2009 with 50 shows from California to Florida presented to more than 5000 professionals.

For more pictures and information, see <http://ethicsarefun.com/>, the Dancing Moose Productions website.

2011 CONFERENCE

Greetings from the SCCA President

Dr. Mary Jane
Anderson-Wiley
SCCA President

A Change is in the Air

Fall is upon us. It is one of my favorite times of the year. Although we have all been very busy, I hope that you have been able to take a moment to breathe in the fresher air, to enjoy the cooler weather, and to feel the inevitable shift that the harvest season brings. I want to take this opportunity to tell you about some of the changes and activities that your SCCA leadership has facilitated since our transition meeting last June.

As president of SCCA, I attended the South Carolina School Counselor Association meeting in Columbia on August 14, 2010. What an energized and hard-working group South Carolina school counselors and career specialists have working on their behalf. This was my first meeting with SCSCA, and I was totally impressed with the capable leadership of President Cedelle Gates and with the productivity and efficiency of the members of the governing board. I encourage all of you involved with promoting student emotional, academic and career achievement to attend the upcoming SCSCA Annual Conference to be held November 4-6, 2010, at Embassy Suites in Greenville. For more information regarding counselor resources and the upcoming conference, see www.scschoolcounselor.org.

On August 21, 2010, the SCCA Executive Council met in Columbia. I am always amazed at the energy, teamwork, and professionalism displayed by these diligent board members, many of whom have been involved in professional counseling leadership and development for decades. Updates were provided by the various committee chairs. We were also pleased to welcome and hear from new members Cedelle Gates, SCSCA President, and Joan Dickinson, new liaison from the SC Department of Education.

We are continuing to work towards achieving the goals of better communication with SCCA members across the state with the development of a Facebook page and of a SCCA membership email list. You should have already received email messages from SCCA President-Elect, Dr. David Scott. Dr. Scott has also been working hard to update and modernize our website. If you have not visited lately, please go to the SCCA website at www.sccounselor.org to see what is new.

Lastly, I am very excited about this year's SCCA conference feature presentations in Myrtle Beach. On February 3, 2011, Dancing Moose Productions will offer a three-hour preconference presentation called Ethics: A Musical Comedy, which examines the important ethical codes of the counseling profession through drama and music. Whether you love oldies, hip-hop, or rock-and-roll, the pre-conference and luncheon keynote presentations by this team of professionals are sure to delight and inform you. Please see the advertisement in this newsletter or the website for more information.

I wish you all a wonderful fall season. Please let me hear from you with any ideas you may have regarding ways SCCA may better serve counselors across the state. I look forward to seeing you at an upcoming event in the near future.

With warm regards,

Mary Jane

It's Not Too Late! See You There!

The South Carolina School Counselor Association is hosting its 27th Annual Fall Conference at the Embassy Suites Greenville Golf Resort and Conference Center in historic, scenic Greenville, South Carolina, on Thursday, November 4 through Saturday, November 6, 2010. Our theme is "South Carolina School Counselors: From Inspiration to Celebration." Preconference workshops take place on Thursday while opening session and general conference workshops begin Friday morning. An array of outstanding presenters, volunteers and SCSCA Board members have committed their time and talent to make this an event filled with professional development opportunities, networking, and fun and excitement.

American School Counselor Association President, Brian Law will deliver the opening session address as well as two other breakout sessions. University of South Carolina's Children's Law Center's Mary Everhart will bring the keynote address at our Awards Luncheon and present a preconference workshop on Thursday, November 4. Many more dynamic presenters will present preconference and breakout sessions. Make plans to attend. Complete information and registration forms are located on the SCSCA website: www.scschoolcounselor.org and in the August newsletter which is also located on the website.

I look forward to seeing you at the conference.

Greetings from the SCCA President-Elect and Conference Chair

David Scott
SCCA President-Elect
and Conference Chair

I want to give you a quick update on our annual SCCA conference to be held in February 2011. The conference committee has been working very hard to provide a great conference. We have included information about our keynote speakers and our great preconference workshops in this edition of our newsletter. The conference sessions will include a wide variety of topics and will have something for every counselor. During our opening session, ACA President, Dr. Marcheta Evans, will speak about “Are you ready for change?” We will also have a legislative update from the SCCA Lobbyist, Jack McInnis. We are pleased to announce that Dancing Moose Productions will be our keynote speakers. Their presentation style will make learning about professional ethics fun and entertaining. Saturday’s presidential breakfast will feature Dr. Art Grant as the speaker. For those who have heard Dr. Grant speak, you know what a valuable addition he is to the SCCA conference.

If you are like me, just hearing the three speakers would be reason enough to attend the conference! But, do not forget about all of the wonderful and educational workshops that we will offer during the conference. It’s going to be great! If you have any questions or would like information, please visit our website at www.sccounselor.org.

Thanks, and I look forward to seeing you at the conference!

David Scott, PhD, LPC, CDFI
SCCA President-Elect

THE 47TH ANNUAL SCCA CONFERENCE

South Carolina Counselors: Agents of Change

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2011 PRECONFERENCE WORKSHOPS

February 3, 2011 | 9:00 am – Noon

Ethics: A Musical Comedy

Presenters: Tim Anderson, MS, LPC; Gordon Leeman, MS, CRC; and Meredith Jeppson, AA, from the Dancing Moose Productions

The tuneful and nostalgic ethics seminar presents complex ethical scenarios as expertly performed parodies of some the greatest music of our time. Songs from Elvis, Taylor, Eminem, Newman, Disney, Sinatra, The Eagles, Mary Poppins, My Fair Lady, Guys and Dolls and many others are transformed to tell the stories of counselors facing ethical dilemmas. This workshop qualifies for supervision credit as well as all speciality areas: LPC, LPCS, NBCC, and School Counselor.

Tim Anderson is a Licensed Professional Counselor with 20 years experience in youth, family and rehabilitation counseling. He is involved in Community Theater and is a Children's Music Director. He lives with his wife Melanie and nine children in Denton, Texas.

Meredith Jeppson was a student of music education at BYU. She has a degree in American Sign Language Interpreting and a lifelong involvement in choirs and musical theater. She lives with her husband David and six children in Ft. Worth, Texas.

Gordon Leeman is a lifelong composer and pianist with a Bachelor's degree in music. He has his Master's Degree in Psychology and twenty-two years experience in youth and family counseling with current certification and practice in rehabilitation counseling. He lives with ten horses, two dogs, three cats and his wife Colleen in Justin, Texas.

Helen Elliott Wheeler, M.Ed., LPC, LPC/S is the Founder/Director in private practice at The Center for Families. She is a certified public school teacher and a Family Court Mediator. She is a Nationally Certified Parent Coordinator (NCPC) working with high conflict parents to improve cooperation and communication after separation and/or divorce. She is establishing a support group for grandparents either parenting solely or working with their children to raise their grandchildren.

February 3, 2011 | 1:00 – 4:00 pm

Different Children, Different Needs

Presenter: E.G. Sebastian, Certified DiSC Behavioral Consultant and author of Communication Skills Magic

Each child is unique based on his/her personality style "blueprint." This highly interactive workshop will reveal how to recognize a child's personality style easily, how each style tends to communicate, what motivates them, what de-motivates them, and much more. Participants will explore and discover their personality style, possible barriers to connecting successfully with children [and adults] of different personality styles, and simple strategies to communicate more effectively with each style.

Mr. E. G. Sebastian is the President of E.G. Performance Solutions and an international speaker who speaks six languages. He has presented workshops and seminars, full time, on topics related to relationship development and leadership since 2003. He is a certified DiSC Behavioral Consultant and the author of Communication Skills Magic.

Impact of Absent Fathers: Death, Divorce, Military

Presenter: Helen Elliott Wheeler, M.Ed., LPC, LPC/S, NCC, NCPC, and Founder and Director of The Center for Families a private practice in Mt. Pleasant, SC.

From *Ozzie to Ozzy: When Father Doesn't Know Best -the importance of fathers hasn't changed but their presence often has. Over 50% of kids will live some of their life in a single parent home—most often with their mother. Participants will learn the implications for families when fathers are absent for any reason, whether from relocation, unwed pregnancies, divorce, deployment, or death. Attendees will look at what the experts say and how Dads have been portrayed in the media.

*Ozzie Nelson Ozzy Ozbourne

Are You Culturally Competent?

Presenter: Marcheta Evans, Ph.D., American Counseling Association President

This presentation will address the importance of professional counselors being culturally competent. An overview of the levels of cultural competency will be explored and ways they potentially impact the level of success the professional counselor will have in working with their client or student populations.

Dr. Marcheta Evans is President of the American Counseling Association. Additionally, she serves as an Associate Dean and Associate Professor for the College of Education and Human Development – Downtown Campus at the University of Texas at San Antonio. Dr. Evans has authored numerous articles and book chapters, focusing on issues of diversity, multiculturalism, women's issues, and leadership. She has given over a hundred presentations at the state, regional and national levels, and addressed topics such as empowerment, multiculturalism, diversity, and leadership.

ICASSI Implications for Adlerian Supervision

Presenter: Jane Lawther, Ph.D.

The ICASSI (International Committee of Adlerian Summer Schools and Institutes) experience with practicing Adlerians from 24 countries, including Europe, Canada, and the US will provide multiple resources and implications for supervision. The four courses the presenter took in working with trauma, living single, life style, and grief will provide discussion generators for supervisors in this interactive session qualifying for supervision hours.

Jane Lawther, Ph.D., and LPC/S is currently counseling at Ballentine Elementary School in Lexington School District Five. She supervises counselors who are working on their LPC certification as well as Supervisors who are working on their LPC/S. She really enjoys working with children, and she always learns and grows from the participants in her sessions at SCCA. She is a frequent SCCA and SCSCA supervision presenter.

FRIDAY, OPENING SESSION

February 4, 2011 | 8:00 am – 9:00 am

February 5, 2011 | 8:00 am – 9:30 am

Why Are Our Children So Angry? Strategies for Counseling African-American Students Who Act Out, Underachieve and Disappoint

Speaker: Art Grant, Ph.D.

As a result of rising parental unemployment, divorce and imprisonment, more and more African American students come to school angry and unprepared for learning. This workshop will explore strategies for effective counseling and intervention.

Dr. Art Grant is a former Director of Student Services for Newberry County Schools and is currently the counselor and intervention specialist for the Daniel Morgan Technology Center in Spartanburg. He is also an adjunct instructor with Converse College in Spartanburg and has conducted statewide and national training sessions on a wide variety of topics. He is also a past president of the South Carolina Counseling Association and the first chairperson for the SC Board of Examiners for Counselors, Therapists, and Psycho-Educational Specialist.

Call for Nominations for Officers of SCCA

The duty of the Past President is to secure from the membership of SCCA nominations for President-Elect and Treasurer-Elect. According to the by-laws, officers must have been members of SCCA for at least two years and must be current members of SCCA and ACA. A candidate for President-Elect must also have served on the Executive Council for a minimum of one year in an elected or appointed position.

President-Elect requires a three year commitment, with designated duties for each year. The President-Elect has the primary responsibility for the annual conference and attends ACA-Southern Region meetings. The President also attends ACA-Southern Region meetings and conducts all meetings of the Executive Council and Executive Committee, as well as all business meetings of the association. Other duties are listed in the by-laws. The office of Treasurer-Elect requires a two year commitment – one year as Treasurer-Elect and one year as Treasurer. Both assist with registration duties at the conference. The Treasurer-Elect performs the duties of the Treasurer when the Treasurer is absent and serves on the Budget and Finance Committee. The Treasurer serves as chairperson of the Budget and Finance Committee, delivers financial reports at meetings, and oversees payments to SCCA divisions. Other duties are listed in the by-laws.

If you would like to nominate someone to run for either of these offices, please check with that person to make sure he/she meets the requirements and is willing to take on these responsibilities. He/she may wish to read a copy of the by-laws first to be aware of all of the duties required. SCCA needs members who are willing to serve in a leadership capacity! Please fill out the nomination form and return it to me at the address below by November 30th. Thanks for your help!

A Note From Your Awards Committee

Greetings from your SCCA Awards Chair! I would like to ask you to take a few minutes out of your busy schedule to nominate someone for an SCCA Award this year. Many of you may know counselors and/or administrators who do an outstanding job and deserve recognition. Please look over the list of categories for nominations and consider nominating one of your colleagues. Thanks!

Jackie Hoagland
Awards Chair

Call For South Carolina Counseling Association Award Nominations

Nominations for South Carolina Counseling Association Awards will be considered in seven categories:

1. Outstanding Counselor Award: This award is designed to recognize meritorious and exemplary service as a counselor. The recipient must be a current member of SCCA and at least one of its divisions. The recognized meritorious service should reflect contributions and service in the primary role as a counselor or closely related helping professional.
2. Outstanding Administrator Award: This award is designed to recognize outstanding service in the recipient's role as an administrator, which has had profound and lasting impact on the counseling and helping profession. While administrators from within the profession are obvious potential nominees, qualifications and experience as a counselor are not prerequisites to nomination.
3. Distinguished Professional Service Award: This award is designed to recognize outstanding service to promote the counseling profession. The recipient must be a current member of SCCA or have been an active member of SCCA for at least five consecutive years. The recognized service should show prolonged accomplishments.
4. Humanitarian Award: This award is designed to recognize a person who demonstrates exceptional caring for humanity without expectation or reward. The recipient must be both personally and professionally committed to humanitarian service.
5. Pioneer Award: This award is designed to recognize outstanding service to the profession and the general public over a relatively long time or for service rendered in the earlier years of the profession and/or SCCA. The recipient should have been recognized as a counselor or helping professional at the time of the "pioneer service."
6. Legislative Award: This award is designed to recognize a member of the state or national legislative branch of government who has made a substantial impact on the field of counseling.
7. Human Rights Award: This award is designed to recognize a counselor or helping professional who has demonstrated leadership and made major contributions in the area of human rights in South Carolina.

Filing Deadline—December 15, 2010

Send nominations to:

Jackie W. Hoagland: 812 South Ocean Blvd., Unit H-1, Surfside Beach, SC 29575.
Phone Number: (H) 843-238-0899 Email: jackieandwalt@hotmail.com

The award nominations should be on 8½ x 11 paper and include:

1. A letter of support, limited to one page, summarizing the recommendation and supporting documentation. It must be signed by the nominator;
2. A page listing the essential demographic information of the nominee, including education level, sponsors, name of person responsible to see that the nominee is available, and a listing of outstanding contributions relevant to the particular award;
3. A listing of significant positions held, honors and recognitions, memberships, publications and/or creations.

The nomination and supporting documentation may be encased in an album, but the album will not be considered in the Award Committee's selections. These awards are for outstanding and exemplary service to the counseling profession and may not be given every year. The award winners may be nominated for national awards through ACA.

It is important that professionals who affiliate with SCCA also join and become active in those divisions and interest groups that are closely allied with their work settings. Dues are collected for:

- (1) SC ASSOCIATION FOR MULTICULTURAL COUNSELING AND DEVELOPMENT (SCAMCD). SCAMCD is dedicated to the insurance of equality regarding the treatment, advancement, qualification and status of non-white individuals in personnel and guidance work. Programs emphasize all charitable, scientific and educational activities which are designed to assist and further the interest of non-whites.
- (2) SC SCHOOL COUNSELOR ASSOCIATION (SCSCA). SCSCA works to define and advance the role of the school counselor at all educational levels, elementary through post secondary.
- (3) SC CAREER DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION (SCCDA). SCCDA is concerned with the lifelong use of people's knowledge, abilities and skills. SCCDA seeks to gain recognition and status for career counseling and to improve skills, systems and standards of service in career counseling.

(4) SC ASSOCIATION FOR HUMANISTIC EDUCATION AND DEVELOPMENT (SCAHEAD). SCAHEAD seeks to provide a forum for the exchange of information about humanistically oriented educational practices and to promote changes in education which reflect the growing body of knowledge about human development and potential.

(5) SC ASSOCIATION FOR SPECIALISTS IN GROUP WORK (SCASGW). SCASGW seeks to assist and further interests of children, youth and adults by seeking to provide effective services through the group medium, to prevent problems, to provide maximum development and to remediate disabling behaviors.

THE 13TH ANNUAL SC ASSOCIATION FOR PLAY THERAPY CONFERENCE

Using Superheroes in Counseling and Play Therapy

Co-Sponsored by SC Counseling Association
12 CEs Approved by APT Specific to Play Therapy
March 4-5, 2011
Heathwood Hall Episcopal School-Columbia, SC

Featuring: Lawrence Rubin, Ph.D., LMHC, RPT-S, is a Professor of Counselor Education at St. Thomas University in Miami, Florida, and clinician in private practice in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, where he works with children, teens and families. On the Board of Directors of the Association for Play Therapy, and immediate past president of the Florida Association for Play Therapy, he has presented nationally, and published widely at the intersection of popular culture, counseling and psychology. Two of his publications, “Using Superheroes in Counseling and Play Therapy” and “Popular Culture in Counseling, Psychotherapy and Play-based Interventions,” have provided clinicians with highly useful interventions.

Superhero Overview: In our culture, the superhero is that ubiquitous, unique, larger-than-life figure, who by virtue of gift, accident, calling or legacy possesses powers and abilities that allow them to fight evil, protect the innocent, and better society. Given their endurance, ubiquity, popularity and appeal, it is not surprising that superheroes have found their way into the lives of children, teens, adults, and the therapist’s office. This didactic and experiential two-day workshop will explore the various and creative ways in which play therapists and counselors can integrate the rich and multi-layered superhero metaphor into their clinical work with children, teens and adults.

For information about the SCAPT Conference, contact the SCAPT President, Dr. Robert Horak, by email: horak@heathwood.org or check out other items of interest or contact individuals at: APT Website: www.a4pt.org or SCAPT Website: www.sca4pt.com
